

Youth and Teen Classes at Clothiers Seminar 2018

9am: Teens: Baking with Ysabel!

- Instructor: Lady *Ysabel de la Oya (Agnes)
- Location: Common room, near the kitchen

We will learn to bake a medieval shortbread.

9am: All: Beginning Hand Sewing - Make a Coif!

- Instructor: Mistress *Roselyn of Aberdeen (Saige)
- Location: Common room, behind panels
- Cost: $5
- Class limit: 5

Kit contains linen hat pieces, ribbon for ties, thread, needles, and sewing snips.

Note: Instructor will be on hand throughout the day for personal instruction.

10am: All: Felted Wool Mittens

- Instructor: Mistress Lilian Bowyer (*Adelaide)
- Location: Kitchen
- Bring felting wool, if you have some
- Class limit: 5

Learn to felt a pair of warm mittens, to keep your hands warm when it's cold out!

Possible needle felting and/or embroidery instructions, as able.

Note: If anyone has a bit of felting wool to donate to this class, it would be appreciated.

10am: All: Costume Research

- Instructor: HL Caitlin nic Raighne (*Brian)
- Location: Common room, behind panels

Instructor will begin with a discussion on the Walk through History, with reference books and images, to help students select garb they are interested in making for themselves. Reference materials will be available to help inspire.

If there is fabric available, and time, instructor may assist in cutting out the pattern and getting the student started on their new garb. If time is a factor, the 2pm class with M'Lady Tessa is to help cutting the patterns and getting them started.

2pm: All: Sewing Project Help

- Instructor: M'Lady Tessa (*Brian)
- Location: Common room, behind panels

Please bring your project, or you can bring fabric and discuss what you would like to turn it into. We should have time to cut out the pattern and get you started!

3pm: All: Beginning Embroidery

- Instructor: Mistress *Roselyn of Aberdeen (Saige)
- Location: Common room, behind panels
- Cost: $5
- Class limit: 5

Kit contains hoop, stamped linen, needles, floss, snips, and handouts.

Note: Instructor will be on hand throughout the day for personal instruction.
